

Population Council to Study Resources

NEW YORK, Aug. 5—Formation of the Population Council, Inc., a non-profit corporation established to encourage research and education concerning the relationship of the world's population to its material and cultural resources, was announced today.

Frederick H. Osborn, internationally known for his work and writing in population matters, and a Major General in World War II, will serve as executive vice president.

John D. Rockefeller 3d is president of the board of trustees. Other trustees are Dr. Frank G. Bouddrea, Dr. Detlev W. Bronk, Dr. Karl T. Compton, Dr. Frank W. Notestein, Dr. Thomas Parran, Lewis L. Strauss and Mr. Osborn.